Organizations and businesses setting up must provide their own vehicle. Participants are encouraged to decorate their vehicle and wear costumes. All treats being given away must be pre-packaged and store-bought. No homemade treats. No fresh food items. Materials and information about your business or organization can be passed out. You may not sell merchandise or goods during the Trunk-or-Treat. In 2022 we had roughly 2,000 children pass through the trunk-or-treat. Please be prepared for the possibility of more than that attending.

No games or activities at your trunk.

Trunk-or-Treat will take place in Festival Square (in front of the train depot) from 12pm to 3pm. Set up begins at 10am. Cars arriving after 11:45am will be turned away. There will be a prize for the best-decorated vehicle.

A $10 fee applies; this minimal fee will go toward advertising Halloween Downtown.

This trunk-or-treat is part of a larger festival. There will be merchandise vendors, games, and entertainment on the 200 block of S. Schuyler and in the Farmer's Market parking lot.

Please see the reverse side for the Trunk-or-Treat form.
